

Date:

1900 ca.

Identifier:

T0493

Description:

Sarah Knight Lama and her daughter Mary Benson were regarded as two of the most talented weavers in central California. Many of their baskets, especially Mary Benson's, were highly accomplished and sold directly to art dealers. This subtle and pleasing bowl was likely used for their own personal cooking needs such as heating water to prepare traditional acorn soup.

Physical dimensions:

diameter 11.25 in ; height 10 in

Format:

Bowl

Coverage:

North central coast ranges ; Central California

American Indian Art

Add to selection

Source URL: <http://collections.fenimoreartmuseum.org/node/4223#comment-0>